OVERVIEW

THANK YOU

Dear Advisors,

Wow, what a year!? This year our entire campus community (and the world all around us) has been handed quite the challenge to manage. We know this year has been one of great challenges not just for the students, but also for each of you. You may be ending the year without getting to share your congratulations with your student organization members in person, celebrate those graduating from K-State, and welcoming those newest leaders to their roles. Your students, aren't getting the opportunity to share their appreciation of you in their traditional ways either. Our Center for Student Involvement staff haven't been able to host our Advisor Appreciation event to share our own appreciation. But, as has been the case with everything else this year, we are all finding new ways to maintain our connections with one another.

This year, as part of the organization registration process, we asked student leaders to complete our Annual Student Organization Survey. That survey just so happened to include questions about you, the great advisors who support these organizations through the entire year, and all of the challenges along the way. We're sharing some of those thoughts with you here. The student organizations registered at K-State have accomplished incredible things, have grown student leaders, and have supported their peers. We know full well, many of these experiences would not have happened to the level they have if not for the support and cheerleading of you advisors. The CSI staff celebrate you and can't wait to see what is to come for the 2020-2021 school year! Thank you for all that you do to support student organizations at K-State!

- Center for Student Involvement Staff

Our organization has two advisors in total and they have all been supportive of us, ensuring every decision made, idea proposed, and event organized was student-led. We truly appreciated the freedom to be creative and, though it was challenging at times, we are grateful for the learning experience and opportunity to put our leadership into practice.

HOW STUDENTS SEE YOU

Our advisor has done a great job preparing students for the competitions while inspiring students to learn and grow in their field. His enthusiasm makes learning and preparing for contests fun and exciting, and he pushes us to step outside of our comfort zone to improve ourselves as a contestant and as a person. He is a great role model for us and continues to show his passion for his work and his coaching.

STUDENT QUOTE FROM ANNUAL SURVEY

Our advisor helped me navigate sensitive issues of student privacy, interpersonal relationships, and global pandemic in a productive, professional way. She is truly one of the most supportive, encouraging, reassuring, creative, and kind faculty members that I've had the pleasure of working with, and she plays a crucial role in our success year after year.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Center for Student Involvement is excited to share news of services and upcoming events.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION ANNUAL SURVEY REPORT

Over 450 student organizations completed the annual survey in April 2020. CSI has begun the process of analyzing this information and will provide a report summarizing organizations' learning & accomplishments.

ADVISOR APPRECIATION EVENT

Under normal circumstances, CSI would be celebrating you with an event that gathers us together to show our appreciation. We look forward to doing this in the fall when we are hopefully back on campus.

Our advisor has helped us stay on track for our events and be able to balance school. With their help, the students do not feel overwhelmed and are able to attend and plan events. They also bring great insight to pinpoint the reasoning for our events and to promote inclusivity and awareness when dealing with what is usually considered "tough" topics. Further, they are very welcoming to creative ideas and are willing to find the right people to ask when presented with roadblocks.
